

Sculpt: Alchemy in 3D
IS Day PDX 2018
Call-for-Sculptures!

We are excited about our sculpture exhibit as part of International Sculpture Day 2018 and invite all PNWS members to submit work to the show.

This is an opportunity for a full month gallery exhibition with a First Friday opening April 6th, as well as the IS Day Main Event on Saturday, April 21st with artist talks, demos, open gallery and food and drink. We want your work represented. Please consider a trip to view the gallery and imagine the possibilities.

Show Details:

- Location: Art at the CAVE; 108 E. Evergreen Blvd., Vancouver, WA.
- Show Dates: Friday, April 6th through and Saturday, April 28th
- Art Drop Off Schedule: Tuesday April 3rd, 10am-3pm
- Art Pick Up Schedule: Sunday, April 29th, 10am-3pm
- Commission Structure (art does not have to be for sale):
 - 30% commission to gallery
 - 20% to PNWS for IS Day
 - 50% to artist
- We'll be recruiting participants to help with show -- set-up, take-down, be on-hand at show

Submissions:

- Submit up to two art pieces for consideration.
- Submissions may include for consideration one project currently in process with a design concept drawing/narrative and an in-process image.
- Pedestals will be provided. You may supply pedestal specific to your piece.
- Panel will consider submissions designed to be wall or ceiling hung, however the artist must be willing to participate in hanging and provide materials and tools. Ladders are available.
- The gallery is accessed via standard height and width commercial man-doors, no roll up doors available.

Submission Details:

- Provide JPEG files (one image per art piece), file size between 1 - 2 MB.
- Name your images in the format LastName_FirstName_ArtworkTitle (e.g. Smith_Jane_ButterflyDance)
- In the text of your email, please include the title, dimensions, media and sales price of each piece. Please include the gallery + PNWS commission of 50% in your pricing.
- In the subject line of your email write "IS Day submission"
- Email submissions to Terri Elioff at terrielioff@hotmail.com
- Submissions due by Monday, February 12th, 5pm.
- Email acknowledging receipt of submission will be sent by terrielioff@hotmail.com
- Artwork will be juried by a panel from Art at the Cave and PNWS the week of February 14th – 21st.
- Artists will be notified by February 23rd via email. The email will include an artist contract with the gallery. Please complete the form and bring with the artwork on drop off day.

We can't wait to see your submissions!

Thank you,
PNWS IS Day Committee

About International Sculpture Day

Founded in 2015 by International Sculpture Center (ISC), International Sculpture Day, or IS Day, is an annual celebration event held worldwide the week leading up to April 28th to further the ISC's mission of advancing the creation and understanding of sculpture and its unique, vital contribution to society. Up to 300 artists and organizations in 20 countries are expected to celebrate with artist talks, open studios, unveilings, sculpture scavenger hunts, pop up exhibitions, demonstrations, iron pours, plus much more. sculpture.org

This is PNWS's third year participating in this international event, and we have received recognition from the ISC of our events! Please LIKE our IS Day Facebook page to keep up with all our IS Day activities, share the page with your friends and art lovers. www.facebook.com/ISdayPDX

About Art at the CAVE

Opened in October 2017 after a long interior renovation. The CAVE – Contemporary Art Vancouver – Experimental is the collective vision of artists and longtime art advocates Anne John, Kathi Rick and Cynthia Heise. Visit the space at 108 E. Evergreen in Vancouver or the website: <http://artatthecave.com>
View photos of the space on the CAVE Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/experimentalartspace/?fref=ts>